DOG-FRIENDLY GUIDE TO THE BEACHES

The Dog Days of Summer! Here are some FAQs and helpful tips if you're traveling with your fur-baby to the Delaware Beaches!

Can I take my dog to the beach?

Each town has their own rules for different times of year. During summer, there are typically more restrictions. Of course these rules are subject to change, so please double check!

Dewey

Dogs are only permitted on the beach with a Town of Dewey dog license. From the Saturday of Memorial Day Weekend-the Saturday of Labor Day Weekend dogs are permitted on the beach before 9:30 am or after 5:30 pm. Outside of that season, there are no time restrictions. Dogs are allowed to be off leash with this license, as long as the owner remains in control of their dog. You can purchase a 3 day, 8 day, or lifetime license online or in person at Town Hall.

Rehoboth

Dogs are not allowed on the beach or boardwalk from May 1 to September 30. For the remainder of the year, they are allowed in these areas on a leash.

Lewes

Dogs are allowed on the beach before 8am and after 6:30pm any day between May 1st and September 30th. For the remainder of the year, they are allowed anytime. Dogs must always be on a leash when in city limits.

Nearby Delaware State Parks

State Parks that include dog-friendly beach areas are Beach Plum Island Preserve, Cape Henlopen State Park, Delaware Seashore State Park, and Fenwick Island State Park. Look for fishing beaches or drive on access beaches as dog friendly options. "Pets are allowed in our seashore parks, but Delaware State Law prohibits them from all swimming and sunbathing beaches from May 1 to September 30. Park rules and regulations also restrict pets from areas such as surfboarding and sailboarding beaches and shorebird nesting areas."

See the map below.

Where can I find dog-friendly restaurants?

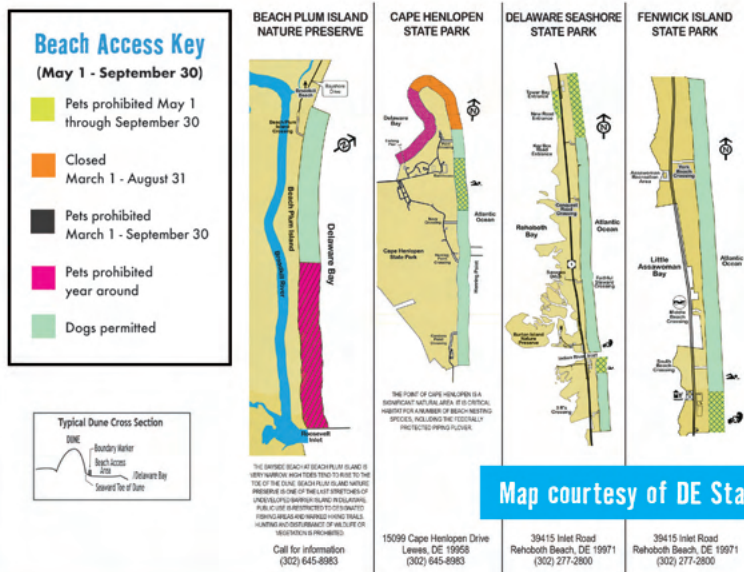

There are plenty of restaurants in the area that allow dogs. Scan this QR code, or visit our website for a list of these restaurants.

www.visitrehoboth.com/category/dog-friendly

Are there any dog parks nearby?

Many communities have private dog parks. For the public, Lewes has a dog park called Lewes Unleashed, but it requires pre-planning with an application and yearly fee. There are public dog parks in Millsboro and Milford that are about 40 minutes from Downtown Rehoboth without traffic.

ROCKING THE DOCKS:

Waterfront Concerts in Lewes Delaware

By: Samantha McCluskey

In 2023, Matt VanBelle, a music lover, husband, new dad, and recent Coastal Delaware resident, envisioned more than just a move to the beach; he envisioned a musical haven for the community. "Rocking the Docks was born out of a desire to enhance Coastal Delaware's entertainment scene with family-friendly vibes and top-tier musicians," says VanBelle. Previously, this summer concert series was hosted by Grain on the Rocks, which is a restaurant next door. VanBelle transformed the experience into one with impressive touring musicians in an inviting setting.

One thing that sets the Lewes-based Rocking the Docks concerts apart is the curated lineup of impressive musicians. "We're creating a place where touring musicians can showcase their talent in beautiful Coastal Delaware...attendees will catch a great show on the water," he shares. The artists hitting the stage are nationally touring, making for memorable summer evenings of fantastic music while overlooking the sunset on the water.

The local response to the first season was overwhelmingly positive, and VanBelle emphasizes community engagement. "We want to create a better experience for our guests every day," he says, highlighting the importance of surveys and feedback to shape the venue's evolution. Providing a unique experience is a top priority. "We work hard to ensure top-level performances, have a great sound and production team, and offer a unique waterfront venue," says VanBelle. For artists, it's about hospitality and showcasing the beauty of the Delaware beaches through personalized itineraries.

For those seeking an elevated experience, Rocking the Docks offers a VIP section furnished by Dewey Picnic Co.— a local luxury brand owned by Delaware Beach local Jess Jones, providing photo-worthy, exclusive seating and yard games for added entertainment. “Our VIP tickets include a private bar, ensuring an exclusive and unforgettable musical experience,” VanBelle adds.

Looking ahead, the focus is on perfecting even more in 2024. “We want to create a sustainable event series for locals and visitors to enjoy every summer,” VanBelle shares, hinting at potential growth while remaining committed to the foundation they’ve built.

“Rocking the Docks is more than concerts; it’s a harmonious blend of music, community, and nature. We’re leaving an indelible mark on Coastal Delaware’s music scene, bringing people together for an unforgettable summer symphony by the sea.”

IT'S LIT!

BEACH BONFIRES

AND PICNICS

Some of the best memories are made on the beach— why not make them extra special? Think: toes in the sand, waves crashing in the distance, and laughing with your favorite people around a bonfire, all while enjoying some food and drinks together. We are talking about beach picnics and bonfires— how to do them yourself, or where to find local services to host them for you!

DIY:

You can have a picnic on just about all of the local beaches. Some of the state parks even have picnic areas— at the state park areas by the bay (just south of the town of Dewey), there are picnic tables right on the beach.

For bonfires, in the town of Lewes, Dewey, and Fenwick, you can have one with the proper permit(s). You can apply on the town websites or in person at the Town Hall. This may take time, so plan accordingly. If you want to make your life easier, there are local services that take care of all of the permits and set up for you!

Local Services:

Dewey Beach Picnic co. organizes private, custom, luxury picnics and bonfire set ups at local beaches. These are great anytime, especially for special occasions like engagements, bachelorette parties, or family gatherings!

The Rehoboth-Dewey Chamber hosts free bonfires in Dewey on the beach off of Dagsworthy Street. Bonfires start Wednesday June 19th at sundown and continue each Wednesday through the summer. With a donation, you get marshmallows to roast. Parking is free 5:00-11:00pm Monday-Wednesday in Dewey.
